

Corinne J. Barringer, M.A., CCC-SLP

Ms. Barringer earned her Master of Arts degree in Speech-Language Pathology (SLP) from Wayne State University (WSU) and her Bachelor of Arts degree in Anthropology from Oakland University.

A certified Forensics judge with a background in theatre and performing arts, she has taught English as a Second Language (ESL) for over 6 years both to private clients and students at WSU, Oakland Community College, and Cranbrook Educational Community - Kingswood School.

Ms. Barringer is certified by The American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA). A member of the Detroit Regional Chamber of Commerce, she started Barringer Consultants in Birmingham, Michigan, over four years ago.

A student pilot, Ms. Barringer has completed research in the field of aviation communication and speech and has been published in Michigan Aviation School Notes, in Michigan Aviation by the Bureau of Aeronautics, Michigan Department of Transportation, and in The Innermarker by the Aviation Law Section, State Bar of Michigan.

Barringer Consultants specializes in accent reduction, vocal coaching, executive English and business conversation, writing, and multicultural training for professionals, including physicians, professors, attorneys, actors, engineers, business people, television talent, vocal performers, and pilots as well as other aviation personnel.

Barringer Consultants offers private and group instruction and seminars for individuals, businesses, and corporations.

“I am so happy to have found you!”
Katherine Bianco, M.D., Yale University

“I always send my student pilots to Corinne Barringer to develop their skills in aviation communication.”

Mack Goodwin, CFI

“My professor was watching me teach a class and later said that my pronunciation had greatly improved!”

Jing Shen, Graduate Teaching Assistant,
Lawrence Technological University

“At a meeting, I spoke up and gave my ideas. My boss congratulated me and commented on how much progress I had made.”

E. Churilla, Designer

“Your lessons helped me on so many levels – not only interpersonal, but also professional. For the first time, I am able to speak up for myself at work without being nervous!”

Dr. Elly Hann

“Corinne Barringer has terrific diagnostic skills and the ability to relate to a wide variety of people.”

Dr. Gonzalo Munevar, Ph.D.,

What Should You Do Now?

1. Call 248-561-9520 to set a time for your free consultation.
2. At the consultation, we will discuss your needs and your goals.
3. At your first training session, you will receive a personal assessment, and we will discuss what training will work best for you.
4. Then you will be on your way to improving your speech, voice, and language skills.

Everyone benefits from customized assessment, instruction, and training, which focuses on the area of interest of each client: from specialized language instruction in aviation communications for pilots and personnel who are non-native speakers of English, to improved diction and performance for voice-over talent, to executive English programs for multinational business communications.
